

Passages / UMR 5319

Passages : multi-site lab

- * University of Pau and Pays de l'Adour
- * University of Bordeaux
- * ENSAPBx

Webs

Research Areas

- * Rethinking our geographical relationship with resources and biodiversity
- * Risk, sustainability and public environmental policy
- * Tourist development - Transition and adaptation of urban and mountainous tourist regions
- * Communication technologies - new approaches to space and location
- * Experience and Culture
- * Global changes, multiscale environmental governance

Skills and Knowledge

- * Social and territorial responses to new technologies
- * Environment, rural and agricultural areas, sectors with a significant environmental impact, new towns
- * Regional development
- * Tourist development
- * Local development
- * Logics of public policy
- * Geolocation and the public space
- * France and the world (esp. Spain, Latin America, Vietnam)

Partnerships

- * INRA
- * Aquitaine Regional Council
- * Pyrénées-Atlantiques and Landes Departmental Councils
- * Société Centrale d'Équipement du Territoire (CDC)
- * Local Authorities and Municipal Federations
- * Ministries (Regional Development, Environment, Public Resources)

- * Private companies: Total, Compagnie d'aménagement des Coteaux de Gascogne
- * ADEME
- * IGU: International Geographical Union
- * AISLF: International Association of French-Speaking Sociologists
- * CNFG: French National Geographical Committee
- * GIS Geodenergy
- * CPAU: Permanent Congress on Development and Urban Planning
- * The Pays de l'Adour Water Observatory

Staff (UPPA site)

- * 10 Full Professors
- * 12 Assistant/Associate Professors
- * 7 Post-Docs
- * 29 PhD students
- * 5 Research & Technical Staff
- * 1 Administrative Staff

Contact

Institut C. Laugénie – Avenue du Doyen Poplawski

64000 PAU

Sylvie CLARIMONT

Tel +33 (0)5 59 40 72 62