

Raising awareness to entrepreneurship

The UPPA has decided to further increase its activities aimed at supporting the creation of new businesses. Raising its community's awareness to entrepreneurship hence came out as a priority. For this purpose, a few actions and activities have been implemented such as entrepreneurship courses, seminars dedicated to business creation and escape games.