

" Call for applications for E2S Ambassadors " grants program, Edition 2018

List of selected candidates (alphabetical order)

Ambassador	Partner Universities	Project	Perspectives
Lucie MARANDEL	University of Ottawa (151-200 ARWU)	Research project: epigenetic regulation induced by nutrients in fish, for a better understanding of the origin of the glucose intolerant phenotype in carnivorous fish. A summer school will be co-organized, a canadian internship has already been obtained for the period of Sept2018-Jan 2019 (Mitacs Globalink fellowship). Several conferences will be organized.	Development of an international collaboration already supported by Europe through the Agreenskills+ award. Experience in summer schools organization and bilingualism development as set up at the University of Ottawa.
Céline PERLOT- BASCOULÈS	Ecole Polytechnique de Montréal (151-200 ARWU), University of Laval (301-400 ARWU), University of Sherbrooke (601-700 ARWU)	Durability and sustainable construction of infrastructures under service conditions: initiating collaborative research between UPPA and Quebec. Develop international research collaborations in "sustainable building and the environment" and establish academic linkages with universities from the Province of Quebec, Canada.	Scientific collaboration in the field of sustainable construction. This partnership will be perpetuated through collaborative publications and international projects. Publications and Exchange agreements.

E2S Executive Director,
Gilles Pijaudier-Cabot